

10th GCHERA Conference 2019

to be held at the University of Agronomic Sciences and Veterinary Medicine of Bucharest (USAMV), Romania
24-26 April 2019

Leadership of Agricultural and Life Science Universities for a Sustainable World

We are delighted to invite you to the 10th GCHERA World Conference, to be held from 24th to 26th of April 2019 at the University of Agronomic Sciences and Veterinary Medicine (USAMV) in București, Romania.

The Conference will also celebrate the 20th anniversary of GCHERA.

The Conference will support the leaders of agricultural and life science universities to develop their university's strategic engagement in education, research, innovation and outreach to address the global challenges for sustainable development. The Conference will take the opportunity of a global meeting of university leaders to compare and contrast our understanding of the challenges, and evaluate approaches and developments from across the globe.

The Conference will provide outcomes for action oriented leadership for change management in agricultural and life science universities to address the challenges encompassed by the sustainable development goals. The delegates will be challenged to review the aims of existing international partnerships and to develop new partnerships in support of meeting the sustainable development goals by 2030.

Outline Programme:

1. Meeting the challenges of the Sustainable Development Goals by society as a whole and in the bioeconomy sectors in particular.
2. Attracting and engaging youth and life long learners in the education programmes meeting the needs for a workforce that can provide sustainable solutions for the future.
3. Contributing to the achievement of the Sustainable Development Goals: impact through outreach/extension, innovation and incubation, public-private partnerships and engagement with policy makers
4. Providing leadership for a sustainable world through partnership (SDG 17).

Submit an abstract for a presentation addressing themes 2, 3 or 4 by 31 January. See more details of each of these themes at the website.

The Conference will be followed by an optional post-conference tour to the Carpathian Mountains with visits to the Bran and Peleş Castles on 27 and 28 April.

Please visit the conference website www.gchera2019.usamv.ro and register your interest to participate.

Do not miss the chance to be a delegate at this important world event!
